Behavior Protocol - Safety & Respect

We welcome students of all experience levels to join our programs and aim to create an inclusive and brave space for learning in the performing arts. To support this goal, safety and respect are our main expectations in every part of the process and the root of all protocols we set. Without safety there is no respect, and without respect we are not able to create a fun, supportive, and collaborative learning environment.

Students are expected to learn, develop, and practice safe and respectful group behaviors while in this program. Any behavior during the program that is seen as a threat to the safety of themselves, fellow students, or staff may result in being removed from certain activities, or even the program itself. This includes but is not limited to forms of verbal or physical harassment and abuse or refusal to follow guidelines set up to protect the safety of students and staff in the building. Behaviors that are disruptive to the learning of others may also receive similar consequences.

Instructors will work with students and guardians to foster developing these skills through clear expectations, reminders, warnings, and other in-class strategies. If the disruptive behavior continues the instructor will enact a “Three Strike Rule”.

1st Strike - Student will be asked to sit out and watch. Behavior is discussed with the student.

2nd Strike - Discussion with guardian about behavior and brainstorm tools for student’s success.

3rd Strike - Student will be sent home early.

Repetitive strikes may result in being dismissed from the program entirely.

The rehearsal/workshop room is a place of learning in both performance and group social skills. Trial and error are natural to the process and expected particularly when working with youth. While leading the group, the instructors must also be able to focus their time and energy on teaching for the benefit of every student in the room. We do not always have the resources to have an instructor devoting extensive time to improving and/or monitoring the behavior of an individual student at the cost of the group’s learning and experience.

Before the program starts please let us know if there are any accommodations or strategies we should know about so we can best support your child’s success in this collaborative and social environment. There is space at the end of this form packet, or you can email us directly. education@aomtheatre.com

By signing below you acknowledge that you have read and understand the behavior protocols set by the Academy of Music Theatre youth program.

WHAT TO BRING & WEAR

- Bring your fabulous self ready to sing, dance, learn, and create!
- A filled water bottle with a secure lid or seal. (If it gets knocked over it's not a guaranteed spill)
 - Please only bring water.
- Musical Theatre is a very athletic art form. It is important to wear clothing that offers you freedom of movement with no hazards for you or your teammates (such as being so baggy you trip, or has a fringe that's going to hit someone else).
- You also don't want to wear anything you mind getting sweaty and dirty.
- Wear shoes that cover your full foot (no open toes) and fit securely and comfortably. They must be either appropriate jazz/dance shoes, or sneakers or athletic shoes that can be securely laced, tied, or velcroed.
- DO NOT WEAR FLIP FLOPS, SANDALS, HEELS, BOOTS, CROCS, OR ANY OTHER LOOSE FITTING OR HEAVY SHOES TO WORKSHOP. Nothing that flops, slips, or could potentially go flying. We don't want you to trip or send your shoes soaring at someone else.
- Shoes will be required at all times - no bare feet.
- Wearing attire not appropriate for dancing may result in being asked to sit out during certain periods of time for the safety of yourself and others.
- It is recommended to not bring any jewelry or other unnecessary items. Small, quiet fidget toys and focus items are welcomed when not a distraction or hazard onstage, but anything that will cause great sorrows if lost, stolen, or broken should be kept at home.
- NOTE: Gum and cell phones will not be allowed on the stage. Chewing gum poses risks of choking while singing and dancing, and cell phones in pockets can fall out and get damaged and pose a hazard to yourself and surrounding dancers.
- Bringing a small backpack or tote bag to carry your lunch and have a place to keep cell phones and other personal items together while on stage is recommended.

Please DO NOT attend a workshop day if experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19, Cold, or Flu:

- Fever
- Persistent cough
- Headache
- Sore throat
- Gastrointestinal symptoms such as nausea, vomiting, belly pain, or diarrhea
- Chills or muscle aches and pain
- Extreme fatigue
- New nasal congestion

Students who are not feeling well and exhibiting contagious symptoms may be asked to sit out or be sent home early.
