

Mission Statement:

The mission of the Academy of Music Theatre is to enrich greater Northampton's quality of life by offering first class performing arts and film presentations in an historic theater of national significance. The Academy of Music Theatre seeks the use of the venue for social, educational, and professional efforts, as well as a broad and diverse audience through its programming and outreach efforts.